

SPONSOR A BOY AT RANCHO DEL REY

What is Rancho Del Rey?

Rancho Del Rey, a Christian nonprofit organization, is a boys' school-year residence nestled among the Sierra Madre Mountains, south of Monterrey, Mexico. Our goal is to break the cycle of poverty, violence, and crime for boys who are most at risk.

What does it mean to sponsor a Rancho boy?

A sponsor is a friend, like you, who wants to contribute towards enabling more boys to benefit from this precious gift of a safe home, hope, and love. You will become part of one boy's extended family, interested in his life today and in his future. Your regular financial support will help to finance expenses directly related your child (school fees, uniforms, vitamins, medical care, food, shoes, books, school supplies). Each Rancho boy will have between 1 and 6 sponsors.

Why should you sponsor a Rancho boy?

- Because these boys need you! Becoming a sponsor allows you to be a pro-active part of the solution for these boys of today who will be adults and parents tomorrow.
- Because Rancho Del Rey has a 57 year history of proven work with thousands of success stories of boys and broken families made whole.

How does sponsorship work?

- Choose your own level of support: $50, $100, $250, or $_____ (more or less) Recurring electronic giving is best, using your checking account or credit card, through eGiving.
- You will receive a photo of one of the Rancho's beautiful boys with some personal information. You will have the opportunity to exchange letters and/ or send emails.

I am interested in visiting the boy I sponsor at the Rancho.

- Great! Contact Susan Mino (smino@elranchodelrey.org, 413 329 3786) for information.

What happens if/when my sponsored child leaves or graduates?

- We will notify you as soon as we can. You may choose to transfer your sponsorship to another needy child.
